

Please do not interfere with the Do Not Call law in NJ. We had been bothered with 2-5 phones calls a day, mostly around dinner time. They have been mostly eliminated except for orgainzations requesting donations (2-3 a week). It's a good law and the business world should not have the right to call whenever they please. It really had gotten out of control. Leave it alone for the public good.